

The Psalms: Praises to the Lord Jesus Christ

Type	Psalms	Description
Songs of Praise	8, 19, 29, 33, 65, 66, 78, 93, 96–100, 103–6, 111, 113–14, 117, 134–36, 145–150	Praises directed to the lord for His goodness, greatness, mercy, and love; for His deliverance from enemies; for His majesty, power, work as the creator; for the natural world’s testimony that the lord lives; for the lord’s magnificent kingship and kingdom.
Songs of Thanksgiving	18, 30, 32, 66, 92, 116, 118, 138	Expressions of thanksgiving and joy to the lord for His divine activity among the people.
Songs of Zion	46, 48, 76, 84, 87, 122	Describe the lord’s holy city as the place where His presence is found; the lord’s people desire to live in Zion and to worship Him there.
Songs of the Temple and Liturgy	15, 24, 50, 68, 81–82, 95, 115, 132	Pertain to ritual, entering the temple with clean hands, worshipping the lord in His temple.
Laments, Prayers, Songs of Petition	3–7, 9–10, 12–14, 17, 22, 25–26, 28, 31, 36, 38–44, 51–54, 56–58, 60–61, 64, 70–71, 74, 77, 80, 83, 85–86, 88, 90, 94, 102, 108, 120, 129–30, 143	A prayer or cry for divine help during a time of pain, distress, sickness, disappointment, or mourning or for protection against one’s enemies.
Songs of Trust	4, 11, 16, 23, 27, 62–63, 123–26, 131	Songs that feature declarations of trust in the lord and His might, power, and ability to save.
Wisdom Songs	34, 37, 39, 49, 73, 112, 127–28, 133	Set forth qualities and possibilities of a life filled with wisdom; describe those who walk in the lord’s path; how to obtain wisdom; characteristics of those who have wisdom.
Songs about the Law	1, 19, 119	Delight in the lord’s law, its significance and power to change people; blessings to those who hearken to the lord’s instruction and counsel.
Royal Songs	2, 20–21, 45, 47, 72, 89, 101, 110, 132, 144	Pertain to the king’s coronation, marriage, character, and success. Many royal psalms foreshadow the glorious reign of Jesus Christ, the messianic king.
Imprecatory Songs	35, 55, 59, 69, 79, 109, 137	Righteous yearnings for the lord’s judgments against one’s enemies.

Chart by Donald W. Parry, 2022